

Juliana Kadeshnikova

Historian | Russia-Japan Relations | International & Economic History | History of Everyday Life

Switzerland | julianakadeshnikova.com | LinkedIn: juliana-kadeshnikova-49b22532

PROFILE

Historian with doctoral-level training in modern Russian and Soviet history, international economic relations, and Russia-Japan relations. Research combines diplomatic, economic, institutional, corporate, statistical, and personal sources, with particular attention to the reconstruction of Soviet-Japanese relations after the Second World War. Additional interests include Alltagsgeschichte (history of everyday life), material culture, public history, and wine as a cultural and economic historical object.

EDUCATION & DOCTORAL RESEARCH

2010 — Candidate of Historical Sciences (PhD-equivalent), History, Saint Petersburg State University, Faculty of History, Department of Contemporary History of Russia.

- Dissertation: Trade and Economic Relations between the USSR and Japan from the Mid-1950s to the Early 1980s.
- Specialty: 07.00.02 — Russian History.
- Supervisor: Prof. Mikhail V. Khodyakov, Doctor of Historical Sciences.
- Defended at Saint Petersburg State University on 23 September 2010.
- Research covered trade restoration, coastal trade, scientific-technical cooperation, fisheries relations, and 200-mile economic zones.

RESEARCH AREAS

- Modern Russian and Soviet history
- Russia-Japan and Soviet-Japanese relations
- International and economic history
- Trade, economic diplomacy, and business networks
- History of everyday life (Alltagsgeschichte)
- Archival research and source criticism
- Wine, material culture, consumption, and public history

ARCHIVAL & SOURCE-BASED RESEARCH

- Archive of Foreign Policy of the Russian Federation (AVPRF), including Japan-related fonds and trade/fisheries documentation.
- Russian State Archive of the Economy (RGAE), including materials relevant to foreign trade and Soviet economic relations.
- Regional archival research in the Urals and work with institutional, corporate, diplomatic, statistical, memoir, and personal sources.

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS

- Kadeshnikova, Yu. V. "Restoration of Trade and Economic Relations between the USSR and Japan after the Second World War." Vestnik of Saint Petersburg University, Series 2: History, issue 4 (2009): 105–109.
- Kadeshnikova, Yu. V. "Trade and Economic Relations of the USSR (Russia) and Japan in the Post-War Period." In Russia in the Twentieth Century: Problems of Political, Economic and Social History. Saint Petersburg University Press, 2008, 489–493.
- Kadeshnikova, Yu. V. "The Fisheries Question in Trade and Economic Relations between the USSR and Japan in the 1950s–1960s." In World in the Modern Era. Saint Petersburg University Press, 2009, 252–255.
- Kadeshnikova, Yu. V. "The Deterioration of Relations between the USSR and Japan following the Introduction of 200-Mile Economic Zones in the 1970s." In World in the Modern Era. Saint Petersburg University Press, 2009, 272–275.

SELECTED CONFERENCES & PAPERS

- 2011 — London — Third European Congress on World and Global History: "The restoration of the Soviet-Japanese trade and economic relations after the World War II."
- 2006 — London — "Difficult but Intense Friendship: Russia and Japan," academic presentation associated with a session involving former Japanese Ambassador to Russia Koji Watanabe.
- 2008 — Perm State University: "Mitsui Company as an Example of the Development of Japanese Private Capital, 1880–1918."
- Eleventh All-Russian Conference "World in the Modern Era," Saint Petersburg — fisheries in Soviet-Japanese economic relations.
- Twelfth All-Russian Conference "World in the Modern Era," Saint Petersburg — 200-mile economic zones and Soviet-Japanese relations.
- 15th International Interdisciplinary Conference "Man. Nature. Society: Current Problems" — doctoral research findings.

ACADEMIC & RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

- Teaching and academic activity in History and International Relations at Saint Petersburg State University.
- Participation in an international research programme involving Ural Federal University, the Russian Academy of Sciences, and Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne.
- Organisation of seminars and workshops and supervision/support of students.

PUBLIC HISTORY & WINE CULTURE

Research and communication on wine history, trade, consumption, material culture, and social practice. Professional training with the Association Suisse des Sommeliers Professionnels (ASSP, 2023). Develops public-history activity through Wise Wine and wine-related cultural projects in Switzerland.

LANGUAGES

Russian — native | French — professional | English — professional